IRVING ARTS CENTER

The Irving Arts Center, a department of the City of Irving, is a beautiful visual and performing arts complex with two theaters, four galleries, and an outdoor sculpture garden nestled on eight acres in the heart of the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex.

The Arts Center is an affiliate of the Smithsonian Institution and presents over 20 exhibitions a year. It is also the home to a dozen resident arts organizations that present symphony, theater, musical theater, choral, cultural and pop performances.

Year-round youth and family programming at the Arts Center focuses on children of all ages and features story times, live performances, Saturday School classes, Family Fundays, the annual Holiday Open House and our KidsArts summer camp program that offers nine-weeks of day camps with classes in the visual and performing arts taught by professional instructors for ages 4 – 16.
